Purpose

Background

Winning Moves is undertaking an impact assessment of WRAP's work between 2020 and 2022. The purpose is to understand WRAP's impact across its various projects. To do this, Winning Moves is contacting stakeholders, signatories and beneficiaries of projects from 2020 to 2022 to understand their involvement with WRAP, actions taken because of WRAP support, and any associated costs of this action.

Data controller and data processors

For the purposes of this project:

1. WRAP is the data controller
2. Winning Moves is the data processor

Type of data that will be processed

For this project, we will process the following types of personal data:

1. Simple data including your name, email address, organisation name, telephone number,
2. Behavioural data including your experience with / thoughts / opinions / feedback on WRAP, activities (that could lead to profiling), location at a nation level (England, Wales, NI)
3. Financial data including your costs related to actions taken that WRAP has supported

How we get the personal data we process

Most of your personal information is by WRAP providing your contact information to use directly, and via you responding to the request for interview.

The legal bases for processing your personal data

Under the UK General Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR), the lawful bases we rely on for processing this information are:

1. Legitimate interest: your contact details were shared with us by WRAP as they have a legitimate interest in understanding the needs and perceptions of their members.
2. Consent: prior to commencing an interview with you, we explicitly seek your consent to collect and process your personal data. Informed consent is always collected by way of an affirmative action such as selecting 'next' to continue with a survey, a recorded verbal agreement when taking part in an interview, or an agreement in writing indicating that you would like to proceed with the research. You can withdraw your consent at any time by informing the interviewer or emailing dataprotection@winningmoves.com

How we will use your personal data

Data will be aggregated and reported. Data may be attributed to the programme. Data will be used for market and social research purposes: this includes carrying out analysis and producing reports on behalf of the client who has commissioned this work. Data may be used for quality control purposes: we may telephone you to validate something you said. Results will be reported back to the client, if you give consent this may be in an attributable format. Consent will be asked specifically for this at interview.

Will we share your personal data?

Your personal data will not be shared with any third party.

How we will keep your personal data

Your information will be securely stored. We will protect the confidentiality of your information in accordance with our normal data handling procedures and all legal requirements. We will not use it for any purposes other than those which are set out in this Notice. We are committed to keeping personal data secure and take all reasonable technical and organisational measures to protect personal data from loss, misuse or alteration.

The length of time we hold your personal information varies depending upon the type of information and its use. We will hold your personal information on our systems only for as long as necessary to provide research services to our clients, and will anonymise data where possible, securely deleting personal data associated with it at the earliest possible point. For this project, we intend to keep simple, behavioural and financial data for a period of 5 years following project completion, before deletion, but stored separately from personal/ identifiable information. (Data is to be retained for this period as it may be required to inform future evaluations of the WRAP support programmes). We will then dispose your information by secure digital deletion.

Where your personal data will be processed

Your data will not be transferred or stored outside the UK or European Economic Area.

Your Rights

Co-operation in research is voluntary at all times regardless of what the research is about or who our client is. You are entitled at any stage to ask that your personal data, or part or all of the record of your survey responses, be destroyed or deleted and we will carry out such a request. This can be requested during the interview itself or afterwards. You have the right to access any personal data that we process relating to you. We may ask for verification of your identity before releasing any information to you.
